

The Vice President emphasizes the role of civil society, private sector and NGOs for providing inclusive right based society for Divyangjan

Chennai, April 18 2022: Vice President of India, Shri M. Venkaiah Naidu today visited National Institute for the Empowerment of Persons with Intellectual Disabilities (Divyangjan), Secunderabad. He was received by Special Children of NIEPID.

He visited the newly established Cross Disability Early Intervention Centre &

Special Education Centre which offers comprehensive rehabilitation, clinical and educational services to the children with intellectual disabilities and other associated conditions. He has overseen the digital classrooms and various services provided by NIEPID.

The Vice President appreciated various activities and services which are provided for persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities services under the guidance of Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment.

In his address, he stated that teachers and staff working with these children should not consider this as a mere salaried job but take it as a blessing given by almighty to shape the future of these kids with different abilities. He emphasized that there is a dire need to create awareness about the special disabilities which these children have and remove misconceptions and stigma associated with disability. He also wished NIEPID should collaborate with organizations like Centre for Cellular and Molecular Biology (CCMB) for conducting advanced research in the field of early detection, identification and prevention of developmental disabilities.

He also emphasized the role of civil society, private sector and NGOs for providing inclusive right based society for Divyangjan. He also stated the importance of having accessible public buildings throughout the country so that Divyangjan can lead independent life and access all facilities like any other citizen.

Shri M. Venkaiah Naidu distributed Aids and assistive devices such as Teaching Learning Material Kits, Wheelchairs, Hearing aids and prosthesis to the identified eligible beneficiaries under ADIP scheme.

The Vice President congratulated NIEPID and its staffs for providing wonderful services to people with intellectual disabilities and urged the faculty, teachers and staffs to work with new zeal and enthusiasm to take care of the special children.

COMPLETION OF SAIL TRAINING CAPSULE FOR REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA NAVY (RSAN) OFFICERS

Chennai, April 18 2022: Indian Navy conducted a Sail Training capsule of three weeks duration for officers trainees (Sub Lieutenants) of Republic of South Africa Navy (RSAN) at Ocean Sailing Node (OSN) of Indian Navy at INS Mandovi, Goa from 28 Mar 22 to 16 Apr 22.

The training programme was conducted under the aegis of Indian Naval Sailing Association (INSA) which is the apex organisation at IHQ MoD (Navy) with respect to sail training. The training was conducted onboard Indian Naval Sailing Vessel (INSV) Tarini which had circumnavigated the globe with an all-women crew from Sep 2017 to May 2018.

The 20 days training comprised of harbour and sea phases of 10 days each covering aspects of sailing theory and sea sorties including night sorties.

Treading the oceans

under sails is an extremely challenging activity which not only enhances risk taking abilities but also hones essential skills including seamanship, navigation, communication and technical operations onboard. The training was thus aimed at fostering the spirit of adventure for the participating crew and strengthening the ties between the two friendly nations across the oceans. The training also aimed to instill the "indefinable 'sea-sense' and respect for elements of nature, which are inseparable from safe and successful seafaring".

With the successful progress of the programme, the Indian

Navy is committed to offer more such customized Ocean Sail Training Courses in the future. The Indian Navy believes that training onboard these vessels is the best method of imparting the values of courage, camaraderie and esprit-de-corps among budding naval officers.

Flight on Keshod-Mumbai route under RCS UDAN flagged off 2 new Greenfield Airports to come up in Gujarat: Shri Scindia Porbandar-Delhi Flight to start on 27th April: Shri Scindia

Chennai, April 18 2022: Ministry of Civil Aviation commenced the flight operations yesterday (16.04.2022) on Keshod-Mumbai route under RCS-UDAN scheme of Government of India. Alliance Air was awarded the route under the UDAN RCS-4.1 bidding process. With this, 417 routes would be operationalized under the UDAN-RCS scheme.

The inaugural event was graced by Union Minister of Civil Aviation, Shri Jyotiraditya M. Scindia, Shri Bhupendrabhai Patel, Chief Minister of Gujarat, Shri Puresh Modi, Cabinet Minister, Road & Building, Civil Aviation, Tourism & Pilgrimage Department, Government of Gujarat, Shri Devabhai Malam, Minister of State for Animal Husbandry, Government of Gujarat, Shri Ramesh Dhaduk, Member of Parliament, Porbandar, Shri Rajesh Chudasama, Member of Parliament, Junagadh-Gir Somnath, Shri Jawahar Chavda, Member of Legislative Assembly, Manavadar, Shri Babubhai Bokhiria, Member of Legislative Assembly, Porbandar, Shri Rajiv Bansal, Secretary, MoCA, Smt Usha Padhee, Joint Secretary, MoCA, Shri Vineet Sood, CEO, Alliance Air and many other dignitaries from State Government of Gujarat, MoCA, AAI and Alliance Air.

The airline will operate thrice a week flights on Wednesday, Friday and Sunday & will deploy its ATR 72-600, 70-seater turbo prop aircraft designed for shorter distance flights on the route. With this, Alliance Air will become 1st airline to connect Keshod to Mumbai under UDAN.

Speaking on the occasion, Shri Jyotiraditya M. Scindia said, "I feel blessed and honoured to be in Gujarat especially in Keshod which has a place in our history and with this new UDAN flight that we are starting today will connect the place which was beloved by our Father of Nation Mahatma Gandhi with the financial capital of our country. 2 famous world-renowned tourist attractions - Somnath Temple and Gir National Park are located near Keshod. With the launch of new route, tourist will be able to visit both easily. Apart from this, various industries are established in Keshod such as furniture, textile, chemicals, cement etc which will also be benefitted from the commencement of new flight route."

Talking about the development plans of Ministry of Civil Aviation in Gujarat, Minister elaborated "Apart from starting the new flight route today, we will also connect Keshod with the state capital Ahmedabad. In this year summer schedule, Ahmedabad has been connected to 3 cities in India - Amritsar, Agra and Ranchi. Similarly, Porbandar and Rajkot have been connected with Mumbai. 2 new greenfield airports are also be constructed in Hirasar and Dholera which will have 23 lakh passengers per year and 30 lakh passengers per year with a budget allocation of INR 1405 crore and INR 1305 crore respectively". A special route connecting Porbandar and Delhi will start on 27th April, informed the Minister of Civil Aviation.

Keshod Airport is owned by Airports Authority of India (AAI). Initially, the airport was refurbished and revived in late 1980s to facilitate scheduled operations. Since last 21 years, commercial aircraft has not landed at this airport.

AAI has invested an amount of Rs. 25 crores to upgrade Keshod airport for resurfacing of Runway, procurement of Aircraft Crash Fire Tender (ACFT), new Civil Enclave including Terminal Building, Apron for two ATR-72 types of aircraft and Link Taxiway, etc

The new UDAN flight route will bring Keshod on the national air map and add convenience & comfort to travelers of this region as Keshod is a tourist destination in Junagadh district of Gujarat and it is surrounded by Arabian Sea and beautiful forests. Somnath Temple and Gir National Park are located near Keshod. It is pertinent to mention that at present, it takes about 16 Hours to travel by road from Keshod to Mumbai which will be reduced to just 1 hour 25 minutes with commencement of new flight.

DG, NMCG Participates In Singapore International Water Week 2022

Chennai, April 18 2022: Director General, National Mission for Clean Ganga (NMCG) Shri G. Asok Kumar participated virtually in Singapore International Water Week, Water Convention 2022 and gave a presentation on 'Status of Wastewater Generation, Treatment and Management in India: Success Through NMCG Initiatives.' Shri Kumar spoke in the Hot Issue Workshop hosted by NMCG on 17th April on 'Sustainable Wastewater Management in Developing Countries: An Innovative Indian Approach in River Rejuvenation' under theme 3 of the Water Convention.

Participation and Institutional Building.

DG, NMCG said that the focus of the Phase-II of Namami Gange Programme will be on sewerage infrastructure creation in the tributaries of Ganga such as Yamuna and scaling up of PPP development efforts. He reiterated the commitment of NMCG to develop a circular economy model focused on reclaim, reuse and recycling. One of the key areas of work in the future, he added, will be faecal sludge and septage management in urban local bodies and rural areas.

Responding to a question on sludge management, Shri Kumar said: "Tonnes of sludge is generated every day and we aim to develop a circular economy based on sludge management," adding, "Under Arth Ganga, which aims at connecting people with the river, we are trying to give some economic benefit to the stakeholders/people so that they have some interest in ensuring the river is clean."

He added that as per the directions of the NGT, a campaign is being run to keep the river stretches across India clean and drive the States to assess the total generated sewerage and the existing capacity and use the various schemes of the government to reduce the gap ensuring not a single drop of wastewater goes into the river. "This will generate a lot of sludge - one of the verticals of Arth Ganga is 'Zero Budget Natural Farming' which aims at facilitating the natural farming process by providing natural manure/soil conditioner made out of sludge and reduce the use of chemicals and fertilizers by the farmers thereby developing a circular economy model in sludge management with economic benefits to the stakeholders (farmers in this case)."

Other speakers during the first part of the Workshop included Mr. D P Mathuria (ED-Technical, NMCG), Mr. Rajiv Ranjan Mishra (Chief Advisor, National Institute of Urban Affairs (NIUA) & Former DG, NMCG), Mr. Bhairav Desai (Former Surat Municipal Corporation), Mr. K P Bakshi (Former Chairman, Maharashtra Water Resource Regulatory Authority), Mr. K P Maheshwari (CEO, Adani Water), Mr.

Rajneesh Chopra (Global Head - Business Development, VA TECH WABAG LTD.) and Dr. Nupur Bahadur, (Senior Research Fellow, TERI - The Energy and Resources Institute). During this session, the presentations were made on topics such as effective and efficient wastewater management in India, efforts to mitigate governance challenges and ushering in a paradigm shift in the Indian wastewater sector; role of private sector and industry partners, co-creation of knowledge base, research and development ecosystem and people connect, case studies from Indian cities, in asset creation and maintenance through unique project delivery models, etc.

In the second part of the session, panelists from other developing as well as developed countries shared their experiences, challenges and best practices adopted in the domain. The panelists included Mr. Kala Vairavamoorthy (ED, International Water Association), Mr. Sumouleendra Ghosh (Associate Partner and Global Water Lead, KPMG India), Dr. Valerie Naidoo (Executive Manager, Business & Innovations, Water Research Commission, South Africa), Mr. Madhav Belbase (Former Secretary, Nepal Water Supply Ministry) and Prof Tony Wong (Chair, Water Sensitive Cities Think Tank, Monash University).

Director, IMF.

Apart from the official meetings with the World Bank, IMF, G-20 and Financial Action Task Force, the Finance Minister will also attend an event at the Atlantic Council, a prominent think tank based in Washington DC, and will also interact with the faculty and students at Stanford University.

"Ayushman Bharat - Health and Wellness Centres achieves yet another milestone - Records all time high teleconsultations on a single day!"

Chennai, April 18 2022: More than 3 lakh teleconsultations were done in a day at Ayushman Bharat - Health and Wellness Centres (AB-HWCs) on 16th April 2022. This is the highest number of teleconsultations ever done at AB-HWCs on a single day, surpassing its earlier record of 1.8 lakh teleconsultations per day. This was achieved on the day when AB-HWCs were celebrating the 4th Anniversary under the chairmanship of Hon'ble Union Minister of Health and Family Welfare, Dr Mansukh Mandaviya.

The teleconsultations are carried out by AB-HWC on the e-Sanjeevani platform. This doctor-to-doctor teleconsultation system, where on one end there is a Specialist doctor sitting at district hospital or at medical college hospital and on the other end is a General teleconsultation for seeking guidance of specialists in District Hospitals, Medical Colleges and even in All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) across the country, to render comprehensive care for the patient, visiting their AB-HWC.

The Hon'ble Union Minister's constant encouragement and support to States/UTs for teleconsultations, has been a strong motivation for the States/UTs to achieve this formidable record. During the 4th anniversary celebrations too, the Hon'ble minister had interacted with patients, Specialists in AIIMS and Community Health Officers at AB-HWCs, for seeking their opinion on teleconsultations.

The record achievement on a single day is also a testimony for e-Sanjeevani platform's robust technology. With around 1 Lakh AB-HWCs already registered as spokes seeking consultation and more than 25000 hubs providing teleconsultations, e-Sanjeevani portal has been facilitating access to healthcare services across the length and breadth of the country.

Teleconsultations have indeed emerged as a boon to assure timely specialist services to poorest of the poor, in the remotest part of this diverse and large country.

The store is also set to launch a Professional Make-up training centre, making it a destination for make-up enthusiasts to visit not only to purchase make-up products, but also to impart quality training from industry experts on advanced make-up and techniques. The make-up academy headed by Mr. Saarjun with a team of highly skilled trainers.

Commenting on the occasion, Mr. Wolfram Langer, said "Kryolan, a global brand with an international reputation, has carved a niche for itself globally as one of the best professional and consumer make-up brand, and we now aim to take our legacy forward by offering expertise to aspirants by offering quality education along with the best-in-class facilities at our premises. We are extremely elated to open our first standalone Kryolan City shop in Chennai, and we hope that it is only the first of many to come. We hope to address and bridge the gap in India for quality make-up and techniques, like we have done in the make-up products segment as well."

Kryolan, being an internationally renowned and popular brand, has a large number of artists and professionals across the globe using their products on a daily basis. Kryolan has also been the constant frontrunner in bringing novel innovations in the field of make-up and having created their own niche with its six fields of competencies - Theater, Movies & Television, SFX, Body Art, Fashion, and Consumers.

About Kryolan : Kryolan was founded in 1945, in Reinickendorf, Germany, by Arnold Langer, a chemistry student sufficiently influenced by 1920s Berlin artistic expressions. Make-up is a science has been Kryolan's refrain since it began a hopeful journey 76 years ago. What makes Kryolan peerless in the cosmetics industry is that the company manufactures its own make-up products, which has been one of its greatest strengths in conquering theaters and film sets across the world.

Audio launch of 'Maamanithan' starring Vijay Sethupathi, directed by Seenu Ramasamy, produced by Yuvan Shankar Raja and to be released by R K Suresh, took place in Puducherry

Chennai, April 18 2022: The audio launch of Seenu Ramasamy directorial 'Maamanithan', a film starring Vijay Sethupathi, produced by Yuvan Shankar Raja and to be released by R K Suresh of Studio 9 was released at a star-studded event in Puducherry Saturday evening, in the presence of film producers, directors, distributors, theater owners, press, television and media friends, and film personalities. Speaking during the event Vijay Sethupathi said, "Not many would have got this opportunity to work with Yuvan and maestro Ilayaraja in the same movie. I am a big fan of Ilayaraja and there are many things to learn from his music. Seenu Ramasamy brings out the human emotions in the movies. He also keeps the audience engaged throughout the running time. R K Suresh has started to celebrate the art and I am happy about it. There were difficult times that we faced ahead of the movie's release which were handled in a better manner. I thank all of them who were part of this project. "Director Seenu Ramasamy said that he has his heart open to accept all your love and criticism. "I am happy that finally good things are happening. I would like to thank Allu Aravind for buying the OTT rights of the film. Superstar Rajinikanth had watched the movie and appreciated it much. The movie is like a child to Yuvan Shankar Raja.

This movie would not have happened without Yuvan and Vijay Sethupathi. I started this movie with devotion. As a dedication to Ilayaraja, the movie is set in his birth place Pannaiyapuram," he added. Yuvan Shankar Raja said, "There were a lot of doubts about the release of the film. Seenu Ramasamy informed me that R K Suresh was impressed with the film. I was in a confused state but this gave a positive feeling. Seenu Ramasamy is a fantastic director. When I approached Vijay Sethupathi he said he did not have date. I convinced him saying that my father and myself will be doing music for the movie. He stays humble and grounded. He will reach more heights. I have worked with my father in this film, it happened only because I am producing the film. I will not forget this day. I would like to thank all the technicians who have worked in this film." R K Suresh lauded Vijay Sethupathi and said that he is a monster in acting. "We have an emotional bonding between us. This is an emotional subject and Vijay Sethupathi has pulled it off. Director Seenu Ramasamy is one contemporary director after Balu Mahendra to capture human emotions. Our bonding resulted in the success of 'Dharmadurai'. Maamanithan will take VJS to a place which only Rajinikanth has reached. Seenu Ramasamy always gets the best out of Vijay Sethupathi. I wish the team success," he added. The entire cast and crew if the movie were present during the audio launch. The audio release function of 'Maamanithan' starring Vijay Sethupathi, directed by Seenu Ramasamy, produced by Yuvan Shankar Raja and to be released by R K Suresh took place in Pondicherry.

International Institute of Film and Culture sets up a Screen Culture Lab

Chennai, April 18 2022: "On behalf of the IIFC foundation, we have started a screen-culture laboratory for students who come from the oppressed, socially and economically backward community. Entrance exams will be conducted, and officials will visit their homes and verify if they are truly marginalized, oppressed and economically backward.

After the verification process is done, if the interested candidates are willing to show their struggle and culture, with the consent of their family, I have arranged facilities like education, food, hostel accommodation for the students and have created this institution to help the students become the best version of themselves in the media field," says Director Vetrimaaran, Founder of IIFC.

During the inaugural function of the institute, Kalaippuli S Thanu was the first person to contribute a sum of ₹1

Crore and handed it to Director Vetrimaaran's mother Meghala Chithravel, and announced that Vetrimaaran would select one among the students studying at the institute, and he/she will be given the opportunity to direct films under his banner V Creations.

They were accompanied by trustees Aarti Vetrimaaran, Vetri Duraisamy and Father Raja Nayakam (Former Professor, Loyola College) who designed the syllabus.
